Robert Black
June 18, 1962 - November 14, 2020

With love, we remember you as a compassionate, gentle, loving, caring, and remarkably devoted husband, father, grandad, son, brother, and friend too many. Gone way too soon.

Our lives go on without you
But nothing stays the same
We try to hide our heartache
When someone speaks your name

Sad are the hearts that love you
Silent are the tears that fall
Living here without you
Is the hardest part of all

You did so many things for us
Your heart was kind and true
And when we needed someone
We could always count on you

The special years will not return
When we are all together
But with the love in our hearts
You will walk with us forever

Always loved and never forgotten
Carla, Tyler, Holly, Sophie, Allie, Easton, Wren

In Flanders Fields By John McCrae

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow, Loved and were loved, and now we lie,
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.
